IL AND GAS CONSERVATION COMMISSION
OF THE STATE OF COLORADO

IN THE MATTER OF THE REQUEST TO
DESIGNATE A HIGH DENSITY AREA
IN THE WATTENBERG FIELD, BOULDER
COUNTY, COLORADO

) CAUSE NO. 1
) Docket 10-9-12

ORIGINAL

PURSUANT TO NOTICE to all parties in interest, the above-entitled matter came duly on for hearing in the Centennial Building, 1313 Sherman
Street, Room 318, Denver, Colorado 80203, on Monday,
October 18, 1993.

BEFORE:

- Chairman Truman Anderson
- Commissioner John Campbell
- Commissioner Mary Larson
- Commissioner Logan MacMillan

Sue McCannon, Acting Director
Patricia Beaver, Technical Secretary

JANUARY

1 CHAIRMAN ANDERSON: Okay. Next matter
2 on the agenda is Cause No. 1, Docket No. 10-9-12, in
3 the Wattenberg Field, in Boulder County. The 4 applicant is Park Lake Homeowners Association through
5 their representative, Anne Dyni.

6 MS. BEAVER: Dyni.

7 CHAIRMAN ANDERSON: This is a request
8 to designate the west half of the northwest quarter
9 of the north half of the southwest quarter and
10 southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of Section
11 29, Township 1, Range Township 1 North, Range 69
12 West, as a high density area. There are no known
13 protests. This is continued from the September
14 hearing so that notice could be provided to all
15 interested parties. We heard this at the September
16 hearing and the commission was convinced that this
17 area could appropriately be designated as high
18 density. They want to make sure that everybody heard
19 about the application that should. I take it that
20 notice -- additional notices have been provided
21 and --

22 MS. BEAVER: That's correct. Notice
23 was given to Dawn J. Burke and Jim E. Burke, as well
24 as Gerrity Oil and Gas, which I don't believe Gerrity
25 is originally listed as interested parties.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In the second section, the author outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. This includes both primary and secondary data collection techniques. The primary data was gathered through direct observation and interviews with key personnel. Secondary data was obtained from existing reports and databases.

The third section details the results of the data analysis. It shows a clear upward trend in the number of transactions over the period studied. This increase is attributed to several factors, including improved marketing strategies and a growing customer base. The data also indicates that the majority of transactions are completed within a short time frame, suggesting efficient service delivery.

Finally, the document concludes with a series of recommendations for future operations. It suggests that the current success can be maintained and even improved upon by continuing to invest in staff training and technology. Regular audits and reviews of the data should be conducted to identify any potential issues or areas for improvement.

1 CHAIRMAN ANDERSON: Was that one where
2 there was a mystery as to ownership on half of the
3 minerals?

4 MS. BEAVER: There was always a
5 question as to whether there was another mineral
6 interest owner, and I haven't received anything
7 formal, but I have had a conversation with the
8 landman that was working for the homeowners
9 association who told me that he was unable to come up
10 with another mineral owner. So, we believe that we 11 have notified everyone under the rules and 12 regulations.

13 CHAIRMAN ANDERSON: Okay. So, then,
14 we can proceed. Did we do an interim order last 15 month, or we approved this subject to --

16 MS. BEAVER: Contingent upon the 17 notice.

18 CHAIRMAN ANDERSON: We really don't
19 need to take any action today.

20 MS. BEAVER: I am just saying that
21 order can be issued.

22 CHAIRMAN ANDERSON: Okay. So, we have
23 provided additional notice, done some additional
24 investigation, found no protest to the commission's
25 decision to designate this area as a high density

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy auditing of the accounts.

In the second section, the author details the various methods used to collect and analyze data. This includes both primary and secondary research techniques. The primary research involves direct observation and interviews, while secondary research involves reviewing existing literature and reports.

The third section focuses on the results of the data analysis. It shows that there is a clear trend of increasing demand for certain services over the past few years. This is attributed to several factors, including changes in consumer behavior and technological advancements.

Finally, the document concludes with a series of recommendations for future research and business strategy. It suggests that further investigation into the underlying causes of the observed trends would be beneficial. Additionally, it advises businesses to adapt their offerings to meet the changing needs of the market.

1 area. So, that process is complete. All right.

2 (Thereupon this portion of the
3 proceedings were concluded on Monday, October 18,
4 1993.)

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In the second section, the author details the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. This includes both manual data entry and the use of specialized software tools. The goal is to ensure that the data is both accurate and easy to interpret.

The third part of the document provides a detailed breakdown of the results. It shows that there is a significant correlation between the variables being studied. This finding is supported by statistical analysis and is consistent with previous research in the field.

Finally, the document concludes with a series of recommendations for future research. It suggests that further studies should be conducted to explore the underlying mechanisms of the observed correlations. This will help to build a more comprehensive understanding of the subject matter.
