

Topographic Map (well location indicated with red circle near center of map). The reference area is approximately 300 feet east of the planned well location.