Operator Comments:

Here are the bradenhead pressure readings taken over the weekend. This is what Jay was requesting from us on these three wells in order to resubmit the RTC sundrys. I mentioned to Jay K. that these were the final three wells on this pad that were drilled prior to us becoming aware that we were in Mamm Creek. Everything from here on out will abide by the regulations.

We're scheduled to frac here this Friday the 24th. Thanks

I hereby certify all statements made in this form are, to the best of my knowledge, true, correct, and complete.
