

Photo 1. View from the approximate wellhead location facing northward. Location is on a low terrace above Navajo Creek. Vegetation observed includes smooth brome (Bromus inermis), willows (Salix sp.), and cottonwoods (Populus sp.).

Photo 2. View from the approximate wellhead location facing eastward.

Photo 3. Birdseye view of cable that could be a piece of rig cable. No other evidence of equipment or oil and gas operations was observed.