

A photograph of a dirt area with debris. In the top right corner, the rear wheel and lower portion of a white vehicle are visible. On the ground near the wheel is a piece of black plastic or fabric. In the center of the image, there is a pile of debris consisting of several wooden planks and a long metal rod. The ground is uneven, with patches of dirt, gravel, and some sparse vegetation. A small yellow object is visible on the left side of the image.
