A photograph of an oil well pumpjack in a dry, open field. The pumpjack is a complex of metal pipes and machinery, with a green sign attached to its base. The sign reads "HYNDREX RESOURCES", "KIOWA CREEK 21-9", and "NENW SEC.09-T05-R03W 6th AM". The background shows a large, leafless tree and a clear blue sky. The ground is dry and covered in sparse vegetation.
