(DETAILS OF WORK)

This well completed as a "J" sand producing oil well in September of 1951. In October of 1955 the original perforations were cement squeezed and well perforated in top 4' of "J" sand which has also watered out. On August 1, 1956, this well was producing 100% water. Since there is no other possible commercial production in this well, it is proposed to salvage the equipment and plug well due to it having reached its economic limit.
