Dear Mr. O'Quinn:

We have been advised that you have taken over the above well formerly operated by Mr. H. R. Crow.

As a new operator it will be necessary for you to file a bond in the amount of $2500 and an agent form. This well is now covered by Mr. Crow's bond and he will be responsible for well until you have filed a bond with us.

Enclosed is a copy of the Commission's Rules and Regulations and some of our forms for future use.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Crow:

On January 9, 1963, I wrote you asking for three forms to be submitted on your recently acquired UPRR #1-5 well in the Windy Hill field, Adams County, Colorado.

We have received your Designation of Agent and Certificate of Clearance; however, we have not yet received the $2500 bond required on the well. The bond must be filed, and will remain in effect, until the well is properly plugged and abandoned, per our requirements. Please submit this bond promptly.
