Photo 2: Photo shows wattles on location have not been properly staked/trenched/backfilled in accordance with good engineering practices. BMP is not in proper functioning condition.
