Photo 4. Photo taken from the associated offsite tank battery, facing East. Photo illustrates Operator has performed some of the final reclamation requirements (i.e., remove gravel). However, there was very little germination of desirable species; therefore, it does not appear the tank battery has been seeded. Also, there is an active remediation.

Photo 5. Photo taken from the associated offsite tank battery, facing North. Photo illustrates vehicle traffic. Operator should consider temporarily fencing off the area as this is not stabilized and to help promote successful vegetation establishment to stabilize the area.
